

Mr. Dulles:

I called John Wiley and explained that you were out at a meeting and had asked me to call for you regarding the luncheon for [redacted] He said he would be delighted to have Cord Meyer attend and I therefore arranged with Cord to be at Ambassador Wiley's house for lunch [redacted] Cord will also take along [redacted] from the WH Division who will act as interpreter. This was at Ambassador Wiley's request. Incidentally, both he and Cord know [redacted]

JSE

5 December 60